

The histogram displays the frequency of non-zero elements in the matrix across different categories. The x-axis is labeled with categories: ASC, ISC, SC, SS, UC, and WC. The y-axis represents frequency. The distribution shows a peak for SC and a smaller peak for UC.